

Greece's most celebrated Chef
Athinagoras Kostakos
to cook at The Capital Restaurant

The Capital is delighted to announce that renowned Greek chef, Athinagoras Kostakos will be visiting London and creating his signature dishes at the Capital Restaurant between the 6th and 10th March 2012.

At the age of just 27, Kostakos is the youngest Executive Chef in Greece. Earlier this year he also became his home nation's best known after winning Top Chef, the Greek version of the hugely successful American reality series in which leading chefs compete against each other in a series of challenges.

One of Europe's rising stars and now an established household name, Kostakos' formidable talent has long been recognised by visitors to the Bill & Coo Suites and Lounge, a luxury boutique hotel on the Greek island of Mykonos where he has been Head Chef since 2009.

Kostakos has earned widespread acclaim for taking local delicacies and transforming them with his outstanding creative flair. His skills have earned Bill & Coo a myriad of national and international trophies, including the Condé Nast Traveller 2010 Readers' Choice Best Hotel Restaurant award.

He will create a 3 course lunch menu at £29.50 and for dinner 3 courses from the a la carte menu is priced at £50.00. There will also be a truly exceptional experience of the 'Charisma of Bill & Coo' a tasting menu at £70.00.

All prices are per person & include VAT. A discretionary service charge will be added to your bill.

22 Basil Street, SW3 1AT Knightsbridge

T: +44 (0) 20 7591 1202 E: restaurant@capitalhotel.co.uk

www.capitalhotel.co.uk