

Welcome to The Restaurant at the Capital, where our team offer true English hospitality alongside a menu of British dish inspired dishes. There is a mountain of work behind making the dishes on our menu look relatively simple.

We have had the utmost pleasure putting the wine list together whilst taking care that the wines we offer will complement the menu throughout the various seasons. Our Wine Flight is a journey of unique taste sensations that have been thoughtfully paired to the menu. We love to work with small artisan producers that often have a story to tell. Our team would be delighted to offer the best of these by pairing them to dishes and sharing their story.

Our priority is to suggest wine that suits the needs of our guests. It would be our pleasure to have the opportunity to guide you through your choice of wine or beverages for the evening.

St Tamás, Mád Dry Furmint, Tokaji, Hungary, 2015

£55

István Szepsy of St Tamás is intent on putting Dry Furmint on the world map and in its collective glass. Based in the village of Mád, in the heart of the Tokaji region, he works with vineyards shaped by volcanic eruptions millions of years ago. World famous for the exquisite sweet wine that is produced here, István knows that this volcanic terroir is his key to proving that his dry wines are just as good. He creates this white wine expressing both the varietal character of the Furmint variety and the typical minerality of the vineyards of Mád village. Well-structured and well balanced, wonderfully elegant blend of apricot and peaches with a warming, ginger spice. Just off dry in style with great structure and minerality.

Fiano di Avellino Cuvée 906, Ciro Picariello, Campania, Italy

£80

Ciro Picariello, considered by all as one of the masters of Fiano di Avellino, has demonstrated the potential of a territory that until a few years ago was widely underestimated as that of Summonte. Today he is among the best wine producers of entire South-Italy and his wines show all the typical characteristics of Fiano appellation. the 906 Cuvée comes from the best site of Picariello vineyard, it has got an intense straw yellow colour with an elegant nose of white fruits, chamomile flowers and fresh herbs. on the taste is mineral, full bodied with a fruity final that repress all the notes on the nose.

Rosé

Pflüger Rosé, Blanc de Noir, Pfalz, Germany, 2016

£57

The white pressed Cuvée of Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier is rather untypical for this region. The winemaker Alexander Pflüger proves that what tastes good in Champagne, can also work well in Germany. Since 2008 he has been operating according to the guidelines of Demeter, the biodynamic cultivation. His goal is to produce wines with nature and not against them. the result is in this lovely wine with pale salmon colour, an intense fruity nose of raspberries and strawberries with an herbaceous hint. on the taste is dry with a predominant acidity and rich in red fruits flavours.

Red

Casa de Mouraz, `Elfa`, Dão, Portugal, 2010

£78

Produced in the earth of Portugal this wine comes from one of the first producer using consistently biodynamic system. It is a blend of more than 30 native Portuguese varieties and for preserve the natural notes of the wine, the producer doesn't use any kind of oak. Once open the wine shows the all power and aromas typical of Portuguese wines starting to an intense and bright purple colour. On the nose the black fruity notes of wild berries, black plum and cherries with a raisin nuance. on the palate is soft, with a noble tannin and high acidity that gives a clue about the ageing potential of this wine.
