

9 Hotel Amenities that Will Put You in the Olympic Spirit

If you didn't score seats to any events for this year's summer games, don't fret. A number of hotels in Olympic host cities offering games-themed amenities. Check out some of the action outside the arenas...

By Paige DePaolis

12:30 PM, July 27 2012

Courtesy The Capital Hotel, London

Afternoon Tea at The Capital

London

This sports-themed afternoon tea at The Capital is almost too precious to eat: basketballs (made of carrot cake); a dumbbell (passion fruit ganache shelled in a Valhrona chocolate); the winner's flame (a white chocolate flame atop a raspberry coulis and banana cream swirl torch); gold, silver, and bronze medals (poppy seed and ginger sable biscuits adorned with Valhrona chocolate); and, of course, a podium (lemon sponge cake). On the more traditional side, scones, tea sandwiches, and tea accompany the festive display (£25 per person).