

The Capital

BURNS NIGHT AT THE CAPITAL HOTEL, KNIGHTSBRIDGE

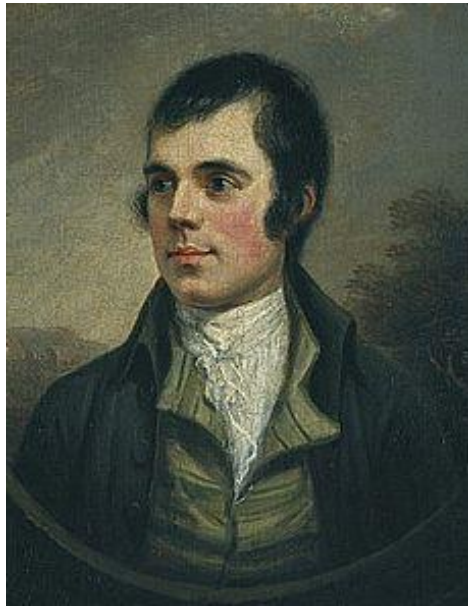

Knightsbridge's critically acclaimed dining room, Outlaw's at The Capital, will be celebrating Burns Night on 25th January with a specially created 4 course menu, with each Scottish-themed dish expertly paired with its own selected whisky. The Burns Night dinner will be priced at £95 with the whisky pairings, or £120 with a wine flight. Alternatively, guests can enjoy the menu on its own for £60. For more information visit www.capitalhotel.co.uk. Please be advised the a la carte menu is also available.

The menu will be created by renowned seafood chef, Nathan Outlaw, alongside The Capital's Bar Manager, Cesar Da Silva. Cesar is the UK's youngest Keeper of the Quaich, maintaining The Capital's association with the society at the heart of the Scotch whisky industry. Diners can expect creative, fuss-free dishes representative of Nathan's ethos of letting the seafood remain the focus of each plate, with each course paired with the highest quality whiskies. Nathan's ingredients are always carefully sourced and feature sustainable catches from across the UK.

The Capital Hotel, 22 – 24 Basil Street, London, SW3 1AT

www.capitalhotel.co.uk

020 7589 5171

Press Enquiries:

Crisp Media

E-mail: romi@crispmedia.co.uk / t: 0207 722 5466