

OUTLAW'S AT THE CAPITAL

A WINNING WEEK FOR NATHAN OUTLAW

Nathan Outlaw and his team are celebrating what is turning out to be a fantastic week!

On Monday, at a glittering ceremony in London, Nathan was named the AA Chefs' Chef of the Year. At the same ceremony, his eponymously named Restaurant Nathan Outlaw was awarded 4 AA Rosettes, the first restaurant in Cornwall to achieve this.

Today comes the news that the same restaurant has retained its two Michelin stars, the only fish and seafood restaurant in Britain to have them, and his London outpost, Outlaw's at The Capital in Knightsbridge has retained its one Michelin star.

In addition to this, the tiny Outlaw's Fish Kitchen in the fishing village of Port Isaac, open for barely a year, has been awarded one Michelin star too.

Nathan said, "I never dreamed that this would happen all in one week. Being named AA Chefs' Chef of the Year is very special to me as it is something that comes from my peers. However, I am extremely proud of the Michelin accolades, and in particular the new one for Outlaw's Fish Kitchen. Every member of the team behind me in each of the restaurants and at The Mariners pub is a part of these awards though, it's not just about me. They all work very hard to give our customers the very best dining experience possible. I never lose sight of that."
